DANIELSON

No strict enforcement of the state motor vahicle department requiring all Connecticut cars to carry 1922 registra-tion plates on and after the first of the will be made until Jan. 5 at midnight, according to a suggestion that Chief John McFarland received Sunday

The telegram explained that conditions at the motor vehicle department, where the workers have been swamped with work for days, show that motorists have been having considerable trouble with the pow application forms and with the rat-ings which must be shown in the forms. Seventy-five per cent of the mail applica-tions have to be returned for correction.

Notwithstanding the troubles that the new application blanks have presented it was noted on Sunday, the first day of the year, that scores of motorists in this ter-ritory had managed to meet the motor vehicle department's requirements as to vehicle department's requirements as to ilking out the forms with all required information, had paid the fees and had their cars equipped vq h the new white background and maroon-figured registration plates. In fact, the great majority of pleasure cars seen in use in Danielson were carrying the 1922 markers, though they were a few cars abroad with the 1931 numbers still in use.

Most recent likeness of David Lloyd George, Premier of England, and the greatest statesmen that England has ever produced—some will say the world. He has held his place at the head of the British Government, through times as trying as any that his government has ever faced, and he has successfully passed through crises which should have wrecked his ministry, but didn't buly because his uncanny shillty to surmount obstacles prevented disaster. His handling of the Irish question was the greatest achievement of his long career and the successful culmination of the Angio-Irish negotiations earns for this little Weishman the position of hear in the "Hall of Pame."
